Days Battle Results In Capture of a Stronghold.

URGENTS LOSE HEAVILY.

Victorious Forces Led by Major Waller, Who Causes Buildings and Stores Belonging to the Enemy to Be Destroyed.

anila, Nov. 9.—Advices from Catagan, capital of Samar island, report that Major Waller attacked a group of insurgents occupying a strong position at Sajapan, near Basey, two guns being used to shell the rebel stronghold.

Throughout the first day the insurgents held the place, but yesterday Major Waller renewed the attack and, after a desperate engagement, carried the position.

Major George Lynch and E. A. San, two marines of the attacking force, and twenty-six insurgents were killed.

Major Waller destroyed the quartels and several houses.

Major Waller's Record.

Major Waller, who led the American forces, is an excellent soldier and received his first honors in 1882 at Alexandria, Egypt, at the English bombardment. He was sent ashore with twenty-marines to care for the property of American residents, and with this band he cleared the public square of hundreds of fanatic natives, killing a shot. He was born in Virginia and appointed there in 1880, made first lieutenant in 1885, captain in 1890 and major in July, 1899, commanding the marines on the island during the Spanish war.

General Smith has issued orders forbidding the purchase of hemp in the island of Leyte except in small quantities for the purpose of procuring food, which purchases are to be under the supervision of the military authorities.

The ports in Leyte are closed, and it is forbidden where it cannot be used by the military.

THAMIAN CANAL AFFAIRS.

Decision Not Expected to Act definitely on Huttin's Offer.

Washington, Nov. 9.—The isthmian commission will meet next Tuesday to add the finishing touches to its report.

It can be stated by authority that the commission has not reported this time in favor of either of the routes of the Panama project.

The question has not yet been decided, and the commission is expected to undertake either to accept or reject the proposition of President Huttin.

Looking to the acquisition by the government of the Panama Canal, the commission is expected to report before the end of the month.

In view of the well understood fact that the commission has reported in favor of the Panama project, the question has not yet been decided, and the commission is expected to undertake either to accept or reject the proposition of President Huttin.

Child Killed by Mad Cow.

Ston, Pa., Nov. 9.—Mrs. John Ruwith her infant child, went to a drive her cow home. When near the inclosure, the beast, standing at the mouth, charged upon the child. The child was killed.

The furious beast hooked the child with its horns and inflicted wounds that were fatal. The woman covered.

Coupling Causes Bad Wreck.

Ston, O., Nov. 9.—In a rear collision on the Pittsburgh and Erie railroad at Lowellville, eight men were killed and several injured.

The first section of a freight train was delayed by a coupling, and the second ran into it, wrecking the engines and the train.

Big Boiler Shop Burned.

Ston, O., Nov. 9.—The boiler shop of Campbell & Co., successors to the late firm, near Broadway, was destroyed by fire.

The machinery, stock and building, valued at $125,000, were destroyed. The cause was traced to a defective boiler.

Stationary Engineers Meet.

N. Y., Nov. 9.—The annual convention of the New York State Society of Stationary Engineers is in session at the Waldorf-Astoria.

TILLEY PRAISES NATIVES.

Report of the American Naval Commandant in Samoa.

Washington, Nov. 9.—While Commander Benjamin F. Tilley, commandant of the United States naval station at Tutuila, Samoa, was in Washington recently he submitted to Secretary Long his annual report upon affairs and conditions in this island possession. Commander Tilley says that the Tutuilians are a gentle, kindly, simple people and that the form of government instituted by the United States has proved very popular with them.

He recounts the numerous improvements in the system of self government which have been suggested to the people and eagerly agreed to by them.

Two of the conditions which needed reform were noteworthy. Every once in a while, says Commander Tilley, a whole village would make up its mind to go on a "melanga," or visiting party. All work would be abruptly stopped, and all ages and sexes would start out on a wandering holiday. The spirit of hospitality, he says, is cultivated to an extreme among the natives, and at every village visited by the rovers the hosts felt it their bounden duty to entertain lavishly.

The visiting party would stay at one village just as long as their entertainers could provide food for them. When supplies ran out, they would move on to the next village to be "entertained." Commander Tilley says that there was never a time that a "melanga" was not in progress somewhere in the island.

Another custom was the bestowing of presents of great value at weddings and other ceremonies, a practice which was carried to such excess that a single wedding often impoverished a whole village. Both of these practices were stopped, upon the suggestion of Commander Tilley, by the natives themselves.

Summing up the work of the year in Tutuila, Commander Tilley says that an organized and successful government has been established which keeps the people quiet and happy and is helping them materially in their journey along the pathway toward complete civilization.

SIBERIAN RAILROAD COMPLETED.

The Car Pleased With the Rapid Work on Big Undertaking.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 9.—Replying to a congratulatory telegram from the Russian minister, M. de Witte, announcing the completion of the Siberian railroad, the czar has telegraphed as follows:

"I thank you sincerely for your joyful communication. I congratulate you on the completion, within so short a time and amid incredible difficulties, of one of the greatest railroad undertakings of the world."

M. de Witte's telegram recalls the fact that the czar turned the first sod of the railroad to Vladivostok May 16, 1891, and that on the anniversary of his accession the line was completed. The minister adds:

"With the laying of rails a distance of 2,400 versts, from Transbaikalia territory to Vladivostok and Port Arthur, our enterprise in Manchuria is practically though not entirely concluded. Temporary traffic is now possible along the whole system, and we hope that within two years it will be opened to permanent, regular traffic."

TROUBLE AMONG YAKUIS.

Weird Ceremonies in Mountains and Raiding of Ranches.

Tucson, Ariz., Nov. 9.—Great fires are built almost every night by the Yaqui Indians in the mountains near Guaymas, Mexico.

In the recent fight between the Yaquis and the Mexican cavalrymen a large number of Indians were killed, and their comrades are now holding weird ceremonies over the bodies, which they took to the highest point on the mountains surrounding Guaymas.

From Guaymas they watch the approach of posses and are able to fight to advantage.

The Yaquis make nightly raids on ranches. They have an abundance of horses and ammunition and seem disposed to continue fighting. The Guaymas people fear attack at night and posses have been stationed outside of the city to arouse the people in case the Indians come.

Money For Missing Man.

Marshalltown, Ia., Nov. 9.—Commandant Horton of the Soldiers' home has received a letter from Frederick Rosebrook, Osmabreck, Prussia, inquiring for Detrick M. Miller, a former inmate of the home, who is the only direct heir to $25,000 left by his brother, recently deceased. Miller left the home in 1898, and it is not known where he is.

Ancient Mines Rediscovered.

Tucson, Ariz., Nov. 9.—A dispatch from Guaymas, Mexico, says that the lost Tayapa mines, celebrated in Spanish annals as having produced $80,000,000 in silver and gold in the seventeenth century and which are described on Spanish maps as situated in northwestern Mexico, about fifty leagues from the sea near Dos Pilares, have been found.

The Campana Delayed by Gales.

Queenstown, Nov. 9.—The Cunard line steamer Campana, from New York Nov. 2 for Liverpool, which has just arrived here, was delayed twenty-four hours by terrific gales. The weather was so violent that the steamer only logged 240 miles Nov. 5.

Plague Wiped Out in Glasgow.

Glasgow, Nov. 9.—The authorities are satisfied that the bubonic plague has been stamped out. The last case of the disease reported was placed in hospital Nov. 1, and the period of incubation has just expired.

THE TALK OF ENGLAND.

British Press Denounces the South Africa Concentration Camps.

MAY REVIVE BALLOT LAWS

Salisbury's Cabinet Seriously Considering the Possibility of Putting This Obsolete Form of Constitution in Practice.

London, Nov. 9.—The Daily News exhaustively surveys the concentration camps in South Africa, with the following conclusion:

"The truth is that the death rate in the camps is incomparably worse than anything Africa or Asia can show. There is nothing to match it even in the mortality figures of the Indian famines, where cholera and other epidemics have to be contended with."

Statistics are produced in order to prove this assertion.

The government's advertisement for teachers to the camp children, setting forth that "the term of employment will be one year certain," is prominently displayed as evidence that the authorities have no intention of ending the "wholesale destruction of human life."

The Daily News urges all humane men not to wait for official reports, but to insist on the camps being broken up and the people distributed among their friends or removed to districts where a fresh attempt can be made under competent organization and with some regard to the preservation of life—that of extermination and an eternal stain on the name of England."

During the lengthy cabinet conference this week the question of re-enforcing the old ballot laws came up for discussion. Many of the cabinet ministers were strongly in favor of putting in practice this form of conscription, for which certain obsolete laws already provide. Thus new legislation would be obviated.

Brodrick Favors the Idea.

The war secretary, Mr. Brodrick, has already caused guarded feelings on this matter to be circulated in the press, for it appears to be almost impossible to keep the home forces up to adequate strength and supply the necessary reinforcements for South Africa on the volunteer system of enlistment alone.

Such a strenuous measure, however, will doubtless cause a storm of disapproval in Great Britain, and it will not be enacted unless the war situation becomes graver. What changes have come over the state of the country in two years can be judged from the fact that the war office has closely examined the old ballot laws and has prepared an elaborate plan by which they can be sprung upon the public at a moment's notice.

The king spent his birthday at Sandringham with the queen, the Prince and Princess of Wales, and the rest of the royal family. There was no official observance of the day, with the exception of the customary salutes at Windsor and at the naval and military headquarters and the ringing of church bells.

The first lord mayor's show of the present century and of the reign of King Edward took place during the day and was more than usually interesting, as there were a number of new features. Special attention was paid to the colonies, which were represented by attractive cars. The decorations of the streets were of the customary character. Big crowds lined the whole route of the procession. After the usual reception at the law courts the procession completed its tour of the city and returned to the Guildhall.

Injunction Against Boycott.

Chicago, Nov. 9.—Judge Kohlsaat in the United States circuit court has issued an injunction against the Custom Clothing Makers' union and its officers and members, restraining them from in any way attempting to injure or interfere with the business of a Cincinnati clothing firm. The firm asked that the union be restrained from issuing circulars stating that the concern was unfair to organized labor.

Lutetian Sausage Factory Sold.

Chicago, Nov. 9.—After lying in idleness for over four years the notorious Lutetian sausage factory has been sold by the estate of the dead sausage maker. It was within the walls of the factory that Lutetian murdered his wife in May, 1897, placed the body in one of the rendering tanks and consumed it in crude potato. He was sentenced to the penitentiary and died there of heart disease.

Additions to New York Zoo.

Portland, Me., Nov. 9.—The New York Zoological society has purchased the entire menagerie of wild animals which has been an attraction at Merryweather park, near Brunswick. The purchase includes three buffaloes, three elk, two caribous, one moose, four deer, one prong horned antelope and two black bears.

French Miners Threaten Trouble.

Paris, Nov. 9.—The attitude of the miners of the department of the Pas-de-Calais is again becoming threatening, and precautionary measures are being prepared. Numbers have struck work at Bourges, while crowds parade Lens, cheering for the strike. Agitators are busy among the men.

Shipwrecked Crew in Port.

New York, Nov. 9.—The steamer Ravensdale, which has just arrived from Providence, brings as passengers eight members of the crew of the Norwegian bark Eugene, which was wrecked on the Yucatan coast during a heavy norther.

DICKINSON HAMPERED.

Bulgarians Thought to Be Blocking Communication With Brigands.

Washington, Nov. 9.—Consul General Dickinson, from Sofia, reports to the state department by cable the receipt by him of another letter from Miss Stone. He quotes Miss Stone as saying, "We are still well in spite of all our hardships." There are other matters treated in the letter which it is not deemed wise to publish.

Mr. Dickinson complains constantly of attempts to interfere with the line of communication he is seeking to establish with the brigands. Although no explanation is afforded by him as to the reasons for this interference, it is believed here that the Bulgarian authorities are seeking to pave the way for a denial of responsibility for an indemnity by exhibiting unnecessary activity in the pursuit of any persons who might be supposed to be able to inform them of the whereabouts of Miss Stone.

Notwithstanding the difficulties which are daily encountered by the state department in its efforts to reach Miss Stone, the belief is strong among the officials that in the near future they will succeed in securing her release. It is true, as reported from Constantinople, that the principal issue is one of the amount of ransom to be paid, and this delays the negotiations, for the brigands, fully aware of the exact amount of money at the disposal of the United States agents in Turkey, are holding back, evidently in the hope of having that amount increased by further subscriptions.

THE NEWS FROM CHINA.

Diplomatic Corps Views Li Hung Chang Lying in State.

Peking, Nov. 9.—The diplomatic corps has made an official visit to the yamen, where Li Hung Chang's body lies in state.

Sir Robert Hart, imperial commissioner of maritime customs, has had a conference with the dozen of the diplomatic corps in regard to the Tientsin revenues. He had previously asked the ministers to transfer them to the imperial customs department, agreeing in return to allow a rebate to the provisional government to whatever extent the ministers may decide.

It is not considered likely that the ministers will comply with the request, as the provisional government of Tientsin is strongly opposed to it, and the military authorities desire to maintain the status quo until the court returns. As the matter is not likely to be arranged by Monday, the day on which the imperial customs will take control of the native customs, and as the port will soon be closed by ice, when there will be no revenue, Sir Robert Hart will be willing to await a settlement of the matter until next March. These revenues average from $8,000 to $9,000 a month, and Sir Robert Hart estimates that this, with the customs receipts at Newchwang, will pay 1,000,000 taels annually on the indemnity.

TURKISH SITUATION.

The People of Mitylene Gave Call for a Rousing Welcome.

Paris, Nov. 9.—Admiral Caillaud has telegraphed particulars of the seizure of the customs at the principal port of the island of Mitylene. He says that in consequence of the sympathetic welcome extended to his squadron he landed only a single company of marines, who were received with marked confidence by all the inhabitants.

Telegraphic communication between Constantinople and Mitylene was now restored. The latest dispatch from M. Papst, counselor of the French legation at Constantinople, notifies the French government that the porte has handed him the drafts on the customs, covering the entire Loroand claim and payable monthly from Feb. 1, 1902, to May 1, 1903.

The foreign minister, M. Delcasse, has not yet received the announcement that the sultan has signed the trade-executing his engagements. So soon as it arrives a cable dispatch will be sent to Admiral Caillaud instructing him to leave the island of Mitylene.

Hunting Fatality in Maine.

Greenville Junction, Me., Nov. 9.—Word has been received here from the Moosehead lake region that W. C. Tuckey of Collingwood, O., was accidentally shot and killed by J. G. Hostetter of Toledo. The men were hunting near Lilly bay, twenty-five miles from here. The information, which came by telephone, included no details save that Tuckey was mistaken for a deer.

Earthquake in Italy.

Brescia, Italy, Nov. 9.—Several underground tremblings culminated in a severe earthquake shock. The inhabitants were panic stricken and fled to the streets. A number of buildings were damaged, but no fatalities have been reported.

New Treasurer For Porto Rico.

Washington, Nov. 9.—The president has appointed William P. Willoughby of the District of Columbia treasurer of the island of Porto Rico. Mr. Willoughby will succeed Jacob Hollander of Maryland, who resigned some time ago.

German Battleship Launched.

Stettin, Nov. 9.—The German battleship Mecklenburg has been launched here in the presence of the Grand Duke of Mecklenburg-Schwerin and the Grand Duchess Marie of Mecklenburg-Schwerin.

Poase Hunts Indian Cracksmen.

Cambridgeburg, Ind., Nov. 9.—The bank building here has been entered by burglars and the safe blown. The burglar, who was caught, is in close pursuit.

CONVICTS RECAPTURED.

A Number of the Leavenworth Mutineers Run Down.

SEVERAL FUGITIVES SHOT.

Warden Confident That In the End Every One of Those Who Escaped Will Be Accounted For, Dead or Alive.

Leavenworth, Kan., Nov. 9.—Several of the convicts who escaped from the federal prison here on Wednesday afternoon have been accounted for. Two of them have been killed, two wounded, and six others have been captured unhurt.

James Wilson, colored, was captured in the outskirts of this city with his feet still shackled. In this condition he had traveled two miles from the scene of the outbreak since Wednesday and had come out from cover to get food. Wilson was a five year prisoner sent up for larceny.

Of those still at large four are being pressed closely by armed prison guards and citizens, and word is expected at any moment that they have been captured or killed. The other fleeing convicts, according to reports received at Warden McClaughey's office, are still making for the Indian Territory.

Warden McClaughey expresses confidence that he will ultimately capture every one of the missing convicts.

A message from the sheriff at Lawrence to the warden said that ten guards, a number of deputies and a crowd of citizens, all heavily armed, were on the track of Frank Thompson, a negro convict, the originator and ringleader of the conspiracy to escape, who is traveling with two other convicts between Lawrence and Nortonville. Thompson is considered a desperate man and is sure to give battle before he surrenders. He and his comrades are armed.

On Trail of a Ringleader.

The sheriff at Lawrence also reported that Gilbert Mullins, another of the ringleaders, is reported twelve miles southwest of that city, where he had impressed a horse into service and was making south.

Jay J. Poffenholz, who with James Huffman was killed at Nortonville, Kan., was a German soldier who enlisted in the United States army at the outbreak of the Spanish war. He was a private in Company A, Fourth United States Infantry, and was arrested and convicted by a court martial at Balor southern Luzon. His crime was burglary. He was brought to the federal prison July 28, 1901, and his sentence was for five years. He claimed Chicago as his home.

James Huffman was convicted of robbery and brought to the prison Dec. 28, 1897, to serve for five years. He had a bad prison record.

The dead bodies of Huffman and Poffenholz have been brought in and prepared for burial in the prison grounds. A letter from Poffenholz's mother, written in Chicago on the day of the outbreak to her son, has just been received at the prison. Mrs. Poffenholz urged the prisoner to make a fine record, as she was, she said, trying to get one of the Illinois senators to take up his case with the war department to secure a pardon.

THE THOMPSON CASE.

Maceabees Must Take Initiative in Prosecuting Defendant.

Port Huron, Mich., Nov. 9.—It develops that if Charles D. Thompson, ex-supreme finance keeper of the supreme tent, Knights of the Maceabees, who embezzled $80,000 from the order, is to be prosecuted the Maceabee officials will have to take the initiative.

By the terms of Thompson's bond with the Fidelity and Deposit company of Baltimore, which was in force when most of the money was stolen, the organization must apply for the warrant in the event of a defalcation and prosecute with the assistance of the bonding company. Supreme Counselor D. D. Attkin has all the necessary papers in his hands, and Thompson's arrest is expected soon.

Dr. L. E. Sisler of Akron, O., has been selected to succeed Thompson as finance keeper.

Will Organize Novel School.

Paris, Nov. 9.—A decree of the minister of commerce, M. Millerand, will be published in The Official Journal appointing a commission to study the organization of the industrial school which France proposes to establish in the United States for the study of American industrial methods. The commission, which is composed of fourteen members, is presided over by Senator Poirrier.

Lord Nevill Released From Jail.

London, Nov. 9.—Lord William Nevill has been released from Parkhurst prison on ticket of leave. He was sentenced to five years' penal servitude Feb. 15, 1898, for fraud in connection with a promissory note. His lordship spent most of the time during his incarceration in wheeling a barrow on the prison farm.

St. Louis Postal Clerk Arrested.

St. Louis, Nov. 9.—Samuel Selig, foreman of the city distributing department of the St. Louis postoffice, has been arrested, charged with stealing letters. It is stated that fifty letters, some containing money orders, were found on his person.

Turkey's Grand Vizier Is Dead.

Constantinople, Nov. 9.—Haili Rifat Pasha, the grand vizier, is dead, and Abdur Rahman Pasha, minister of justice, has been appointed to succeed him ad interim.

WILL ACT ON RECORDS ONLY.

President's Decision Regarding Promotions to Brigadier Generalships.

Washington, Nov. 9.—The president has declared to Senator Cullom of Illinois that in making the promotions to the brigadier generalships soon to become vacant he would be governed entirely by the record, that it was his intention to promote those whose records showed them to be most deserving of promotion and that neither personal considerations nor influence would count.

Senator Cullom had called on behalf of Major Ballance, who went into the army from Peoria, and Major McClelland, a son of General McClelland. The latter was General Shafter's adjutant during the Santiago campaign.

Senator Burrows of Michigan talked with the president during the day about financial legislation. Senator Burrows is a member of the finance committee of the senate and is strongly opposed at this time to any further reduction of the government's income.

"I do not believe," said he, "that it would be wise to tinker with the revenues until we know exactly what money will be needed. If we are to build the Nicaragua canal and provide liberal amounts for the improvement of rivers and harbors, it would be the height of folly at this time to slash the revenues."

UNCLE SAM IN LUCK.

Site of New Federal Building in Helena Is a Gold Mine.

Helena, Mont., Nov. 9.—The site of the new federal building in this city is the scene of a rich gold strike, and by the terms of a clause inserted in the contract between the construction company and the federal government the latter will be the sole beneficiary of the discovery. This clause provides that all minerals found on the property shall belong to the government, consequently the construction company will be compelled to mine the ore while the government will receive the profit.

Assays made show free milling gold to the value of $18 and $20 per ton. While the exact width of the vein has not as yet been ascertained, mining experts estimate that it will be fully twenty-five, and perhaps, forty, feet, making it a strike of immense proportions.

The vein extends across the entire block from southeast to northwest and the quartz is highly stained with iron. Continuing in a northwesterly direction the vein goes directly beneath the residence of Colonel Thomas Cruise, the millionaire banker, who twenty years ago discovered the richest gold mine in Montana, the "Drum Lode," which he afterward sold to the Rothschilds for $500,000.

YALE STORE RAIDED.

Burglars Were After Football Game Tickets, but Were Disappointed.

New Haven, Conn., Nov. 9.—A midnight raid was made on the Yale cooperative store, located in South Middle college, on the campus, and the authorities are inclined to the opinion that the burglars had in view a wholesale theft of tickets for the coming Yale-Princeton football game, together with a large amount of cash accompanying applications for the tickets.

Entrance was forced by means of a window, and the large ticket box was forced open. No football booty, however, was obtained, as tickets, applications and cash had been removed to the football headquarters and deposited in a safe.

The Weather.

Fair; variable winds.

LI HUNG CHANG DEAD.

Aged Chinese Statesman Joins His Ancestors.

HE HAD BEEN ILL A LONG TIME.

Advanced Years and Hard Work Made Stomach Trouble Fatal—Native Authorities Take Precautions to Avert Any Disturbance.

Peking, Nov. 7.—Li Hung Chang died at 11 o'clock this morning. Earl Li had been unconscious for more than twenty-four hours preceding his death, and it was announced at noon yesterday by his physicians that he could survive only a few hours.

At an early hour last night, as the patient lay in a comatose state, his burial clothes were placed on him, as is always done when the end is certain.

The courtyard of the yamen was filled with life-size paper horses and chairs, with coolie bearers, which the earl's friends were sending in accordance with Chinese custom, to be buried with him in order to carry his soul to heaven.

Several of the ministers of the various powers called to express sympathy. The Chinese officials are somewhat uneasy concerning the effect his death will have on the populace, and to guard against a possible anti-foreign demonstration the Chinese generals have dispersed their troops about the city in such a way as to command the situation. Trouble, however, is extremely improbable.

The wife of Earl Li and his two sons and daughter were with him. They are greatly distressed.

Chinese officials during the yamen telegrams have been sent summoning Prince Ching, who is now on his way to meet the court, and Chou Yin, provincial treasurer, from Pootung.

The former will assume the general charge of governmental affairs, and the latter will act as governor of Chih until Li Hung Chang's successor in that office is appointed.

LI HUNG CHANG.

He, who will probably be Yuan Shi Kai, appointed.

Dr. Robert Colburn, an American, who is one of the physicians who attended Earl Li, stated that when he was called to act with Dr. Velde of the German legation on Nov. 1, he found the patient very ill, but, as severe hemorrhage due to ulcer of the stomach.

The hemorrhage was in part controlled, said Dr. Colburn, but owing to the underlying condition of chronic gastritis, with persistent nausea, only the mildest liquid food could be injected.

Yesterday Earl Li was cheerful and without pain, but at 2 o'clock this morning he became unconscious.

Earl Li's persistent refusal to refrain from attending to government business aggravated his malady, while the refusal of the family to permit certain measures customary in western medical practice for relieving his stomach contributed to hasten his end.

Reckoned by European standards as the greatest statesman China has ever produced, Li has always held an enviable position among his countrymen. Li is essentially a Chinaman, with all his wisdom. There is no doubt of his shrewdness, but he shines as a statesman more in contrast than in merit, according to the views of many who have come in personal contact with him. Nevertheless, Li Hung Chang will go down in the annals of history as one of the greatest of Chinese, and many rank him with Bismarck and Gladstone.

Perhaps the real greatness of Li's statesmanship may best be made clear by recalling his attitude in the recent troubles between the Chinese government and the powers growing out of the Boxer uprising. Li seems to have been able to keep on friendly terms with all three elements, the Chinese government, the powers, and the Boxer leaders.

Always Progressive.

Li always has been a progressive allied with the most enlightened leaders in his country.

Li was born in the province of Nganwei on Feb. 16, 1824. In 1849, while governor of the province of Kiangsu, he aided "Chinese" Gordon in crushing the Taiping rebellion. The other Kiang province came under his sway, and in 1855 he was made viceroy of the united provinces. In 1859 he was appointed minister plenipotentiary. In 1867 viceroy of Hongkong and in 1868 a grand chancellor. After the Tientsin massacre in 1870 he was punished on the charge of not having aided the commanding general, but two years later the emperor restored to him his titles and the office of grand chancellor.

After the first Chinese defeats in the war with Japan he was severely blamed by the Peking government for the unprepared condition of the army and navy and was called to the capital.

STONE SOUP.

The Dish That Was Concocted by a Traveler in Peru.

The natives of Peru are not always hospitable to the white traveler who finds his way into their villages, and he soon becomes familiar with the words, "Maman canchi," which mean in Quichua language, "There is none."

A certain explorer pressed by hunger and having some experience in the country stopped at the first hotel he came upon and asked its owner to sell him a chicken.

"There is none," was the sulky rejoinder.

To all his requests for anything in the shape of food the traveler received only a grunted "Maman canchi."

"Very well," he said finally. "I shall have to make a stone soup. You can at least procure for me the right kind of stone. I want a smooth, round one, and it must be washed very clean."

Curious and a desire to learn how to make this economical stone soup prompted the traveler to ask the owner.

"Now," continued his visitor, "I'll put a pot of clean water on the fire and place this stone in it. I will then teach you how to make this most appetizing soup."

The host complied, and as soon as the water began to boil he asked, "Is that all?"

"Nearly," replied the wily guest, "but it will be much improved if you throw in a little salt and red pepper, and if you happen to have an onion, why, it will do no harm."

How it was a beginning, for the desired articles were at once procured without a murmur of dissent, and the water continued to boil. Presently the stranger turned in a tone of indifference: "Sometimes I add a small quantity of fat and a handful of rice. You don't happen to have any?"

"Why, yes, I have," responded the interested host, and without delay these ingredients were added to the soup pot. Then the hungry visitor caught sight of some vegetables in a corner, and, without appearing to have seen them, he observed: "When you take this soup with me, you will like it. I know, although it is a pity we could not have a vegetable or two thrown in. They improve the flavor of stone soup."

In went the vegetables.

"There is only one thing lacking," finally commented the guest.

"And what is it?" asked the other.

"Well, if we had a little meat I would chop it up very fine and put it in with the rest. Then in about five minutes the whole thing would be just right, ready for us to enjoy."

Sure enough, even the meat came to light, and in compliance with the traveler's promise he and his host made a good supper on the stone soup—Alice Lee Phoung in New York Commercial Advertiser.

Looked Worse Than She Felt.

She was richly but inauspiciously dressed and would have attracted no particular attention as she stood on the corner of Tremont and Winter streets had not her face, under a white veil, been wreathed in a smile of remarkable composure. Several persons paused to watch her "make faces," and then came a familiar acquaintance.

"What upon earth is the matter?"

"The facial confusions ceased and were replaced by a smile."

"With me? Nothing."

"But you looked as if you were suffering terribly."

"Never felt better."

"But you look as if you were twisting it into all sorts of shapes."

The lady standing at the corner laughed and held out her hands, in each of which was a parcel.

"I was only trying," she said, "to work the rules of my veil down upon my chin"—Boston Herald.

When to Use "Shall" and "Will."

"At what time shall you be at liberty?" is the correct form when you "desire information, not consent or a promise."

"At what time will you be at liberty?" is to be used to "At what time are you willing to be at liberty?"

It implies that being at liberty is dependent on the will of the person spoken to. "At what time shall you be at liberty?" is equivalent to "At what time are you going to be at liberty?"

Being at liberty is regarded as simply a matter of the future, not dependent on the will of anybody. "Will you?" expects the answer "I will," it denotes willingness, consent or determination.

"Shall you?" expects the answer "I shall," it denotes fatuity and nothing more.—Elizabeth A. Wiley in Ladies' Home Journal.

Fishes That Sing.

The sciaenid, a little six inch chubby variety of the lagoons of Italy, sticks its head above the water and sings a dainty song equal to that of some species of wading birds. Trich lagoon (the sea swallow) is known to every fisherman of the Danube and the Rhine by the peculiar grunting noise it makes. Trich lagoon make a whining noise like a young puppy, while sciaenid gather in bands to hold regular concerts, no doubt originating the fable of the sirens.

Apposite.

It was his first voyage, and he was leaning over the rail in an attitude of reckless abandonment.

"What are you doing?" some one jeeringly asked him.

"I am reaching to the sea, sir, the things that are the sea's, sir," he gasped as soon as he could speak.—Chicago Tribune.

REBELS HAVE PANAMA.

According to Reports Received in New York City.

New York, Nov. 7.—From a source of information on the situation in Colombia which thus far has furnished no news not subsequently verified by wire The Herald received last evening a copy of a cablegram saying that the city of Panama has fallen and is in the complete control of the Liberal party.

It is believed by the New York representatives of the Liberals that General Alban, the governor of the Panama department, is a prisoner unless he has escaped by sea.

The message came to A. P. Echeveria, who is an active member of the revolutionary party in the United States. It is as follows:

"Government has surrendered everything. Publish."

The dispatch is signed by Saul Cortisso, chief of staff, who, as stated in The Herald three weeks ago, was the military chief in command of the troops of the Liberal party who were assembling in Chame, several miles north of Panama.

At the headquarters of the Liberal party in this city all were jubilant at the news.

PORTE PAYS FRENCH CLAIMS

Heavy Sea Prevents a Landing at Mitylene.

Paris, Nov. 7.—A dispatch from Admiral Caillaud, received here last night but dated yesterday morning, announced that his squadron was still lying before the island of Mitylene. No landing at that time had been effected. A heavy sea was running.

A dispatch from Constantinople reports that the ministers held an unusual meeting yesterday afternoon for the purpose of examining the propositions submitted by the council of the French legation, M. Bapst.

Another dispatch says the porte has sent a note to M. Bapst, enclosing monthly drafts on the customs in payment of the Loran and Tubini claims and embodying certain decisions of the Turkish government regarding the quays difficulty.

McKinley Memorial Association.

Cleveland, O., Nov. 7.—The executive committee of the McKinley Memorial association held its first meeting yesterday at the office of Senator Hanna. Hon. William R. Day, president of the association, Senator M. A. Hanna, vice president, Ryerson Ritchie, secretary; William A. Lynch of Canton, Hon. Henry C. Payne of Milwaukee, Alexander H. Revell of Chicago and Senator Charles W. Fairbanks of Indiana were in session the entire day. Plans of organization were considered. The secretary reported active work throughout the entire country and gratifying results.

Crippled by Coal Shortage.

Newcastle, Pa., Nov. 7.—The industrial plants of this city are very badly crippled at present from a shortage of coal. Yesterday ten mills of the Shenango Tannery, the largest in the world, ran out of coal and had to suspend operations. The Shenango Valley Steel mill borrowed enough coal to run it twenty-four hours. The railroad is crippled for cars, and it is feared some of the local works will be obliged to shut down for a time on account of a lack of coal.

The Maryland Legislature.

Baltimore, Nov. 7.—Returns received in this city and including every county in the state, partly official and partly estimated, give the Democrats 45 delegates and 7 newly elected senators, which, combined with the 10 who hold over in the senate, assures the friends of Mr. Gorman a total of 65 on joint ballot. The Republicans, it appears, have elected 40 delegates and 6 senators, which, added to their 3 hold over senators, gives them a total of 58 on joint ballot.

Mine Workers' Strike Ordered.

Scranton, Pa., Nov. 7.—An order calling a strike at the eight collieries of the Temple Iron company was issued last evening from the headquarters of district No. 1, United Mine Workers of America. The order is addressed to the presidents of the local unions at the collieries affected. The eight collieries operated by the Temple Iron company are located in Lackawanna and Luzerne counties and employ about 4,000 men and boys.

Atlanta Theater Burned.

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 7.—The Lyceum theater, Atlanta's vaudeville house, has been destroyed by fire. A performance was being given when the fire broke out, but the audience was dismissed in time to prevent a panic. Fred Jones, a fireman, was rescued, badly burned, from an upper window, and Roy Danner, an electrician, was injured by a fall. The fire started from crossed electric wires under the roof.

Triple Tragedy in Michigan.

Houghton, Mich., Nov. 7.—Felix Reinger, aged fifty-five, residing twenty-six miles southwest of here, killed his wife and seven-year-old child with an ax. He then went into the cellar and shot himself. The bodies of the wife and child were horribly mangled. Reinger is supposed to have been insane.

Murderer Gets Life Sentence.

Schenectady, N. Y., Nov. 7.—Carmelo Calvete, who was indicted by the grand jury for the murder of Joseph Aldi, has been sentenced to life imprisonment by Justice Stover in the supreme court.

Huge Deficit in Germany.

Berlin, Nov. 7.—The German imperial deficit has heretofore been estimated at $25,000,000. It is now asserted that the budget will assume a deficit of $35,000,000.

Weather Forecast.

Fair; northerly winds.

REHEARING FOR CARTER

Civil Court Will Review Convicted ex-Officer's Case.

HE IS FIGHTING FOR A FORTUNE.

Review, if Alleged Embezzler Wins, Will Not Necessarily Free Him, but Will Keep His Money Out of the Government's Hands.

Chicago, Nov. 7.—Oberlin M. Carter, now a convict in the government prison at Fort Leavenworth, Kan., and formerly a captain in the United States engineer corps, is to have a rehearing of his case in a civil tribunal. He now has the assurance of the government authorities that all the evidence is to be reviewed before Judge Kohlsaat in the United States circuit court in this city, the hearing to take place probably within a few months. Carter will be called on as a witness in his own behalf, and for the purpose of testifying in court he will be released temporarily from his place of confinement.

All the evidence which was heard by the court martial will be gone into exhaustively, but even if the court should find for the ex-captain in the civil suit it will, while acting as a moral vindication, have no effect upon the finding of the court martial unless as a consequence of such moral vindication the president exercises his power of pardon.

Result of Government's Suits.

This is the result of the suits brought by the government some months ago in several federal courts for the purpose of recovering the proceeds of $722,582 which, it was proved at the court martial, Carter had embezzled from the United States. His uncle, Lorenzo D. Carter, and his brother, I. Stanton Carter, were said to have invested this money and secreted it for the purpose of having a fortune ready for the former army officer upon his release from the military prison.

When the case shall be disposed of finally, these valuable assets will become either the property of the government or of Carter. No confident is Carter of final vindication that he cheerfully joined in this agreement with the government's representative. He told his relatives and his lawyer to turn over to the courts at once the property in dispute, and on the court's decision he will base his chance of being a pauper or a rich man when he shall be outside the prison gates.

Standard Oil Defeats Nebraska.

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 7.—The Standard Oil company scored a victory in Nebraska when the referees appointed by the supreme court to take testimony submitted their findings to the court declaring in favor of the company and against the state in the suit brought to oust it under the antitrust laws. The suit was originally brought by former Attorney General Smith and has been pending nearly three years. The referees declare the allegations in the state's petition are not sustained by the evidence. The court at an early date will pass upon the report, and if the usual custom shall be followed it will be accepted.

Chanler Declared Sane.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 7.—The Albemarle county court heard the petition to appoint a committee for John Armstrong Chanler, the divorced husband of Anne Chanler, the Princess Troubetzkoy, the allegation being that Chanler was insane. After examining a number of witnesses the court refused the petition, holding that nowhere did the testimony show insanity. This decision settles the question of Chanler's ability to manage his own property interests in Virginia, which will now be turned over to him.

Georgia Town Destroyed.

Richland, Ga., Nov. 7.—Fire which started yesterday afternoon destroyed the greater portion of the business section of this place. The fire originated in a warehouse and was started, it is said, by a truck running over a match. The flames spread very rapidly. Columbus and American fire companies arrived too late to be of much assistance. The loss is estimated at $48,350, with a small amount of insurance.

Island Government Embarrassed.

San Juan, Porto Rico, Nov. 7.—Mr. Dix, the acting treasurer, who is in the military hospital, where he was recently operated upon for appendicitis, shows no improvement in condition. Several days at least must pass before he will be out of danger. His illness seriously embarrasses the government, as there is no treasurer, and Mr. Dix alone is empowered to execute treasury department papers.

Baltimore Republican.

Baltimore, Nov. 7.—Latest returns from this city indicate that it has been carried by the Republicans by about 3,000 plurality. The entire Republican ticket, with the possible exception of the sheriff, has been elected. It is still possible that the general assembly may be Democratic on joint ballot, in which event former Senator Gorman would again become United States senator.

General A. W. Greely Home.

New York, Nov. 7.—General A. W. Greely, U. S. A., chief signal officer, arrived here yesterday on the steamer Columbia from his visit to the Philippines. He went there several months ago to inspect the signal service and returned by way of Europe. He started for Washington almost immediately after landing.

Will Accept Canada's Offer.

London, Nov. 7.—The British war office, it is understood, will accept Canada's offer of a strong cavalry contingent for service in South Africa.

RAYNER BRINGS TEARS.

Eloquent Appeal For Schley Moves Audience Deeply.

DRAMATIC SCENE AT THE CLOSE.

Dewey and Lemly Join in Congratulating Applicant's Senior Counsel. Answers to Specifications in the Closing Argument For the Defense.

Washington, Nov. 7.—Mr. Rayner of Admiral Schley's counsel occupied the entire time of the session before the Schley court of inquiry except for half an hour early in the morning, in which Captain Parker ended his argument. The effort of Mr. Rayner was a brilliant one, full of rhetorical figures and not void of sarcasm for those who have assailed Schley's record.

Mr. Rayner covered every precept of the specifications and explained the movements of the squadron in detail.

ISIDORE RAYNER

He went into a minute analysis of the motives which actuated the admiral in his actions. In his argument Mr. Rayner took the position that the retrograde movement was a most serious charge made against Schley, but he laid the entire responsibility for this upon Captain Sigsbee. He dwelt upon the failure of Captains Jewell, Wise and Sigsbee to convey to Schley the information which they had received from the department. He held that these officers had failed in their duty in not informing Schley of the assurances which they had that the Spaniards were in Santiago harbor. Mr. Rayner made a strong plea for the discretion which is granted to a commander in chief operating in the field. He took the position that Admiral Schley exercised excellent judgment in the light of the information which had been furnished him. The conduct of Admiral Schley relative to the Hodgson correspondence was upheld. Counsel contended that Schley acted within his rights and duty in publishing Hodgson's denial of the reports relative to the colloquy on the Brooklyn.

Brilliant Argument.

The climax in the inquiry came when Mr. Rayner ended his brilliant argument of over three hours with a peroration so eloquent and impassioned that all within the sound of his voice were profoundly touched. This remarkable trial, he said, sought to condemn the man who had brought to a successful termination as great a naval triumph as was ever won.

In vivid colors he painted the picture of the Brooklyn with Commodore Schley on the bridge fighting the entire Spanish fleet until the Oregon appeared out of the smoke. The thunders of the Brooklyn muffled the cries of his countrymen, he said, aroused Admiral Schley's anxious face. He pictured the victorious sailor suffering as few have suffered before in three long years while the fires of persecution leaped around him and now awaiting the hour of his vindication in the verdict of the court.

Verdict of Posterity.

"And when it comes," he ended, "he can from the high and exalted position that he occupies look down upon his traducers and maligners and with excellent pride exclaim: 'I care not for the venomous gossip of clubs, drawing rooms and cliques and the poisoned shafts of envy and malice. I await under the guidance of divine Providence the verdict of posterity.'"

The scene in the courtroom as he finished with these words was thrilling. The attendance had been large all day, and at the morning session a woman had fainted from excitement. As Mr. Rayner began his praise of Admiral Schley those in the audience, many of whom were women, leaned forward in their seats. The spell of his oratory was over them, and when he described the admiral's gallant deeds and the alleged persecution to which he had been subjected many of them broke down and wept.

Schley Affected.

The members of the court displayed evidences of emotion, and Admiral Schley himself was plainly moved. He sat leaning back, with his hands behind his head. His chin twitched, and as his counsel said he could afford to await the verdict of posterity two big tears rolled down his cheeks. He moved unobtrusively to conceal his emotion and under the pretense of adjusting his glasses brushed the tears aside. For full thirty seconds after Mr. Rayner closed there was not a sound. Then the tension broke in a loud burst of applause.

Admiral Dewey after about a half minute arose to remind the spectators that such a demonstration was out of place. A moment afterward the court adjourned.

As soon as the gavel fell the entire

TEN MISSING.

Probably Burned to Death in Vaudeville Theater Fire.

Hurley, Wis., Nov. 7.—The Klondike theater, owned by Edward LeClaire of this city, was burned while most of the inmates were in bed. Nine men and one woman are missing and have probably lost their lives in the fire. It was only by the hardest efforts of the fire department that the entire town was saved from destruction. The Klondike building was a structure 125 feet long, 50 feet wide and three stories high. It was occupied by twenty-five people, consisting of the LeClaire family and a stock company who gave a vaudeville entertainment six nights of the week.

The fire is thought to have been caused by the explosion of an oil stove in the proprietor's bedroom. An alarm was quickly sounded. Those who heard the cry of fire immediately went forward, and their exit by way of the stairway was cut off. The only remaining exit was through the side and front windows. Most of the women crawled out the side windows, dropped to the adjoining buildings and reached the ground in safety with slight injuries. Some were forced by the flames to jump from the front windows, and all these were injured.

LETTER FROM MISS STONE.

The Missionary Was Alive and Well on Oct. 29.

Sofia, Nov. 7.—The messenger sent by M. Bakhteffoff, the Russian diplomatic agent, to the brigands has returned, bearing a letter from Miss Stone to a former pupil at Sofia. M. Bakhteffoff, having thus established communication, has turned the letter and details over to Mr. Dickinson, the American consul general, saying the latter has the ransom and upon him rests the responsibility.

The messenger was absent nine days. The letter is dated Nov. 1 and is written in Bulgarian by Miss Stone, but controlled by the brigands.

It consists of half a page, saying Miss Stone and Miss Tsiska are well and that the latter expects a baby in three weeks. It expresses hope for speedy release.

M. Bakhteffoff's messenger also brought a letter to Mr. Dickinson from Miss Stone. The brigands decline to trust Mr. Dickinson's men and characterize his offer as paltry.

To Save Pennies.

If your ribbons become faded and creased, you can make them look almost new again by rinsing them in cold water, shaking them almost dry and then ironing them while damp on an ironing board with a piece of muslin over.

Your black thread stockings will keep their look of newness and blackness much longer if you wash them at home. To do this properly fill a small muslin bag with bran, and with this make a lather in tepid water. Wash the stockings in this water, and when you take them out of the water roll up in a clean cloth and wring them out well and dry by a quick fire.

Wanted Butter.

A cooking teacher advises that a prolific source of waste in many American households is in the too free use of butter, says the New York Evening Post. If one would remember every time the temptation comes to add an additional tablespoonful to some dish in process of preparation that a tablespoonful of butter weighs an ounce and has therefore a definite value, 2 or 3 cents, as the case may be, one of this waste might be stopped. A pure beef fat, as suet well tried out, can often be substituted for butter to the betterment frequently of both flavor and digestion.

Character Lines.

The woman who thinks only of the disappointments of the day or the inconveniences of the weather usually shows her temperamental failings in her face. The petulant fret lines, the drooping chin muscles, the washboard corrugation in her forehead—all these are pointed fingers and glaring signboards saying and shrieking to the world: "Look at me! I am Missus Pessy-Mist. Nothing suits me, and the things that do I am unable to see."—Chicago Record-Herald.

Never allow fatigues to become "red-hot," as they will not hold the heat so long after such treatment. Should they become rough or smoky give them a good scrubbing in soap and water, rinse dry and rub briskly over a piece of sandpaper. To prevent their sticking to starched clothes rub over the sandpaper, then over a cloth with a little beeswax or white wax in it.

When you use a steamer over a kettle, fold a clean cloth in several thicknesses and lay over the top of the steamer under the cover and weight the cover down. This keeps in all the steam, and the food will cook much more quickly, making a saving of time and fuel.

The habit of overlooking family jars, of failing to see the sour look and not bearing the harsh word and setting aside for ever the disagreement is a habit that makes for family peace. It is throwing stones in the path out of one's way.

If a kettle in which onions or strong vegetables have been rubbed with a cloth dipped in cold water and then wiped with a dry cloth, all the odor will disappear.

CITY BRIEFS.

New moon today.

The "Tony Laver" is still most in demand.

Now for an old-fashioned November snow storm.

Yesterday was the twenty-third Sunday after Trinity.

There is a run of high tides the first of the week.

Who repairs your shoes? John Mott, 11 Congress St.

The days have decreased five hours and twenty-one minutes.

The wind would have piled up the snow on Sunday, had there been any.

The leaf that remained on the limb over Sunday must have had a death grip.

Epidemic relieved in twenty minutes. Almost miraculous. Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. At any drug store.

Harvard admirers are very enthusiastic over the victory on the gridiron on Saturday.

An asphalt pavement is being laid on Willard street, in front of the Smith residence.

The cold, blustering weather had its effect in decreasing the attendance at the churches on Sunday.

Is it a burn? Use Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. A cut? Use Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil. At your druggists.

Local merchants are preparing for the holidays' trade and are laying in large stocks in expectancy of a big season.

Music Lessons on Violin, Cornet, Mandolin and Banjo. T. L. Reinwald, Danforth U. S. Naval Band, 6 Court street.

At their chapel on Court street on Tuesday evening the members of the Unitarian society are to have a cake, candy and book sale.

Saturday was an ideal day for football, and the Portsmouth enthusiasts who journeyed to Exeter saw a grand good contest.

Scrofula, with its swollen glands, running sores, inflamed eyelids, cutaneous eruptions, yields to Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Dyspepsia—bane of human existence. Burdock Blood Bitters cures it promptly, permanently. Regulates and tones the stomach.

Hundreds of lives saved every year by having Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil in the house just when it is needed. Cuts, scrapes, burns, bruises, cuts, contusions of every sort.

On Sunday afternoon a high sea and inches in diameter was blown from a lofty elm, in front of the residence of William E. Marvin, Esq., on Middle street, and crashed to the sidewalk, below, breaking into several pieces. Fortunately no one was passing at the time.

The shooting is practically over, and the sportsmen have few regrets at the passing of the season. Save the ducks, there has not been much game in this vicinity, since the beginning of fall. During September there were plenty of the ducks and the gunners reaped a great harvest.

Years of suffering relieved in a night. Itching piles yield at once to the curative properties of Doan's Ointment. Never fails. At any drug store, 50 cents.

The interest is so great at the revival services being held at the Methodist church on State street, the members decided on Friday evening to continue the services at least another week. On Friday evening the Rev. Mr. Bontrouhouse preached to a large audience in the vestry.

There will be a special assembly of the Ineffable Grand Lodge of Perfection, Grand Council of Princes of Jerusalem, and the New Hampshire Chapter of Rose Croix, at Masonic hall, Portsmouth, Tuesday evening, Nov. 12th, at 7:30 o'clock, for the purpose of acting on forty or more applications for the degrees from Dover.

"Little Colds" neglected—thousands of lives sacrificed every year. Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup cures little colds—cures big colds too, down to the very verge of consumption.

The first annual convention of the "Antislavery" association of New England and will be held at the American house, Boston, on Wednesday, Nov. 29. It promises to be a very instructive and entertaining gathering, especially to postgraduates. The twelve New England United States senators have been invited to be present, and Senator Gallinger of New Hampshire and others have already accepted the invitation. U. S. Senator William E. Chandler, formerly of the senate committee on commerce and post roads, and very familiar with postal legislation and interested in the development of the postoffice department in its various branches, will also attend.

Sunday's weather came broads on the coal bins.

The person who ventured out on Sunday had to be tied down to escape being blown off the earth.

The loss by fire in the Sanborn brick yard has been adjusted for $1000 in the Granite State company, through John A. Brown.

No matter how long you have had the cough, if it hasn't already developed into consumption, Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup will cure it.

Miss Isabel C. Wingate has recently donated to the New Hampshire Historical society fifty-three marriage licenses issued by Gov. Bennett Wentworth between 1743 and 1779.

Otis H. Whittier and Lieut. Clifford B. Gill are taking steps for an early development of their Great Boat's head property, but are not yet prepared to announce their plans.

Storer Relief corps holds a special meeting in C. A. R. hall this Monday evening, to prepare for inspection, which takes place Wednesday evening.

Many a nervous person feared the ringing of the fire alarm on Sunday, as the violent wind would doubtless have caused a disastrous fire had one broken out.

Hives are a terrible torment to the little folks, and to some older ones, easily cured. Doan's Ointment never fails. Instant relief, permanent cure. At any drug store, 50 cents.

Many a Sunday hat was rolled along the dusty walks on Sunday, much to the annoyance of the owner, who for a moment, had released his grasp on the headgear.

The bowling season has also opened in Exeter, and there will probably be some contests between Portsmouth experts and those from the up county town.

There will be a children's concert at the Pearl street church on Wednesday evening at seven o'clock. Those who have confectionery may leave the same at Pettigrew Bros.

An important meeting of the Hampton Water Works association was held at Hotel Whittier Saturday evening, and it is expected that construction work will begin in the near future.

Hay-rill gunners, while on hunting at the Pawtucket mountains in Nottingham last week, came suddenly upon seven deer grazing in an open field. Deer are rapidly multiplying in this section.

Portsmouth people who trade in Portsmouth need have no fear of contracting small pox, as they possibly might do in Boston at the present time. There are over a hundred cases in that city.

Work has been commenced on the Halliburton house on Islington street, next to Goodwin park, which is to be moved to Sherman avenue by its owner, J. Taylor Waterhouse, and there be remodelled.

A horse owned by A. B. Racine fell in Market street on Saturday evening, but after being unharnessed, got up all right, and no damage to the wagon to which the animal was attached, resulted.

The Exeter, Hampton & Amesbury street railway company has bought of Edward Janvin of Hampton Falls, two large double cottages near its terminus at Hampton Beach.

Freight business on the Eastern Division of the Boston & Maine railroad is exceptionally good at the present time, and hardly a day passes but one or more extra trains are run between Boston and Portland.

What's the secret of happy, vigorous health? Simply keeping the bowels, the stomach, the liver and kidneys strong and active. Burdock Blood Bitters does it.

The quartette of the North church and a large chorus choir have begun rehearsals for "The Nativity," a church oratorio by H. J. Stewart, which will be given at Christmas time.

The Elbow club of Kittery held another of their assemblies in Wentworth hall on Friday evening. A large number were present, including many from this city.

All masons are requested to be present at the funeral of the late Capt. Redford Webster Sargent, at the Second Christian church in Kittery, at two o'clock this afternoon. The burial service of the order will be performed.

Special meetings of the Haverhill, Haislow & Newton street railway company, and of the Portsmouth & Exeter, the road first named now nearing completion, and the latter to be held next spring, will be held in Exeter, to authorize ninety-nine-year leases to the Exeter, Hampton & Amesbury. A special meeting of the last named company will then be held to approve the leases.

A FATAL GUNNING TRIP.

Joseph Thibodeau Meets Death in the Harbor Sunday Night.

His Body Found in the Weir, off Ger-rish Island, at Daybreak.

His Boat Probably Fooled and Was Capsized During the Terrible Gale.

The body of Joseph Thibodeau, a young man of about 28 years, and employed during the past four years as a machinist at the Morley Button Manufacturing company on Islington street, was found floating in the weir off Ger-rish Island, in the harbor, at daylight this morning. The discovery was made by the ever vigilant life saving crew at the Jerry's Point station.

Thibodeau left this city early on Sunday morning for a gunning trip in the harbor. It was shortly before six o'clock in the morning that he left the wharf of the Portsmouth Yacht club at the South End, after he had been warned by Robert Lear of the great danger of venturing outside in the gale of wind that raged in this vicinity Saturday night and all day Sunday. Thibodeau persisted that he thought he would be all right and started off in a light wherry. There was a choppy sea in the harbor at the time and the wind seemed to increase all Sunday forenoon.

He appeared to be suitably clad and carried a handsome double barreled gun in the boat. He had not returned late in the afternoon and his friends at the yacht club became very much alarmed at his failure to get back. They engaged a launch to be ready to start down the harbor and make a search for the missing man, but later they learned from the life saving station at Jerry's Point that a man answering the description had been seen in the harbor gunning just before sunset and that he was then apparently all right, and was making up the river, off Fort Constitution.

The sending down of the launch was then given up. But Thibodeau did not return and it was supposed that he had landed at Kittery Point and would come up on the electric, perhaps. There were no further fears in regard to his safety, until after the last car had come up from the Point, and he had failed to return.

To have gone down then in the launch would have been a dangerous, wild search, and this was abandoned. There were hopes that the man would yet turn up all right. This morning the station was called up, and it was learned that a capsized boat had been sighted, and that the crew were searching the harbor. A little later word was received that the body had been found in the weir.

Just how Thibodeau met with the accident that resulted in his death will probably never be known. He may have been returning from his trip and becoming exhausted from the exposure all day and the great exertion necessary to make headway in his boat against the terrible gale of wind, was forced to allow his boat to drift out against the weir, the craft being overturned and the occupant drowned. Or he may have been tempted to sea by some favorable flight of sea birds and went back after a shot. The boat may have become unmanageable and capsized in spite of able and intelligent efforts on his part. It must have been dark when the accident happened, or the life saving crew could have noticed it, had it occurred before daylight. The station had good reason to suppose that the man had safely returned.

One side of the face and the eyes were considerably disfigured, there being many scars in the flesh and the ear was torn, and the mutilation may have been made by an accidental gun shot wound, or may have been made by fish. A search will be made for the gun, near where the body was found, in an effort to establish the real cause of death. Dr. Towle was called in to make an examination of the body.

As soon as the body was located, the station notified Coroner John E. Rider, who went to New Castle with Undertaker H. W. Nickerson, to bring the remains to this city. The body arrived at eleven o'clock. As soon as the particulars were made known, the coroner decided an inquest unnecessary.

Thibodeau's home is in Beverly, Mass., where he is said to have a father. He is also reported to have a brother in Newburyport, Mass. He is spoken of very highly by those who were acquainted with him. He was industrious, temperate and a good workman. He roomed with the family of Mr. Harry Hoitt on High street and took his meals at the Haven cafe. When the Herald reporter called to learn what was known about the drowned man, the people were much shocked to learn of the young man's sad end.

Thibodeau came here from Beverly with Mr. Oliver I. Howe, the master machinist at the button works. Mr. Howe speaks very favorably of the young man and was greatly grieved to hear of the fatal accident.

The body will be held until relatives have been heard from.

OBSEQUIES.

On Saturday morning prayers were held at the home of Mr. John Mooney of Prospect street over the body of Charles C. Hammond by Rev. G. M. Seaborn of the Advent church. The body was taken to Ogunquit on the morning train where interment will take place. Undertaker Oliver W. Ham had charge of the funeral arrangements.

The funeral of Mrs. Samuel Spiney was held at the home of the deceased in Eliot, at three o'clock on Sunday afternoon. There was a large gathering of the relatives and friends of the deceased. The Rev. Elbridge Gerry, pastor of the Eliot Methodist church, conducted the service. Interment was in the family lot by Oliver W. Ham of this city.

At one o'clock on Sunday afternoon, at the home of the deceased on Cass street, occurred the funeral of Mrs. Maria Parshey, a very much respected aged resident. There were many relatives and friends present to honor the memory of the woman. The Rev. Charles LeV. Brine, rector of Christ Episcopal church, read the service of the church, which was fitting and impressive. The floral tributes were numerous and handsome. H. W. Nickerson was the funeral director. The interment being made in the family lot in Sagamore cemetery.

The funeral of Capt. Redford W. Sargent took place this afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Second Christian church, Kittery. Rev. John A. Goss of York officiating in the absence of the pastor, Rev. E. C. Hall. Interment was in Orchard Grove cemetery.
